USS WHITE PLAINS (AFS 4) COMMAND HISTORY
1986

January 1986 saw the WHITE PLAINS completing her DPMA and getting underway on 21 January for two days of Sea Trials off the coast of Guam. She pulled in on January 22, and spent the rest of January inport putting the finishing touches on her DPMA.

WHITE PLAINS got underway from Guam on February 8 for six days of operations with USS ENTERPRISE, USS SACRAMENTO, and USS LEWIS B. PULLER. She pulled into Guam for three days and on February 17 began Mobile Training Team Phase 1.

WHITE PLAINS got underway on March 10 enroute to TEAM SPIRIT 86 and spent the next eleven days underway conducting underway replenishment with 17 different ships including USS BLUE RIDGE and USS MIDWAY. She pulled into Pusan, Korea on March 22 for a port visit. WHITE PLAINS completed March with a three day port visit to Hong Kong.

WHITE PLAINS spent much of April in Guam for an upkeep period and departed on April 21 for Yokosuka, Japan where she completed a Training Availability. On May 12, WHITE PLAINS began Interim Refresher Training and closed out May with OPBRE (Operational Propulsion Plant Recertification Exam).

June 7, WHITE PLAINS departed Guam for Subic Bay and spent two weeks having work done by SRF Subic. WHITE PLAINS got underway on the 28th for Pattaya Beach, Thailand for a four day port visit. On July 9 she departed for Australia and conducted replenishment exercises with USS ENTERPRISE Battle Group enroute. WHITE PLAINS arrived in Australia on July 18 and departed July 21 for Subic Bay.

August began with WHITE PLAINS in Subic Bay, departing for her homeport of Guam on the 4th. She arrived on August 8 and spent the next ten days getting work done on the ship by SRF Guam. On August 20, WHITE PLAINS departed Guam on a rescue and assistance mission for USS BEAUFORT who was 400 miles east of Guam, towing a barge that was in danger of sinking. WHITE PLAINS lended damage control assistance and escorted BEAUFORT to Guam, arriving on August 23. WHITE PLAINS finished August conducting training drills off the coast of Guam.

WHITE PLAINS spent the first half of September in Guam for an upkeep period and departed for Yokosuka, Japan on September 15. Enroute she conducted Vertical Replenishment exercises with USS BLUE RIDGE and conducted a Burial at Sea Ceremony. Arriving in Yokosuka on September 19, WHITE PLAINS spent four days loading supplies and departed Japan on September 23 for ANNVALEX 86, a joint exercise between the U.S. Navy and the Japanese Maritime Self-Defense Force. During the exercise WHITE PLAINS provided fuel and stores to USS RANGER, USS REEVES, USS STANDLEY, USS PEARY and several of the Japanese ships. WHITE PLAINS closed out September enroute to her homeport of Guam.

Remaining inport Guam little more than a week, WHITE PLAINS departed on the 13th enroute Pusan, Korea. Before arriving, an UNREP was conducted with USS BERKELEY. WHITE PLAINS arrived in Pusan on the 19th and was underway for the Philippines on the 23rd. On 27 Oct WHITE PLAINS pulled into Subic Bay and stayed inport for the remainder of the month.

An amphibious exercise had WHITE PLAINS leaving Subic Bay on 2 Nov 86. UNREPS were conducted with JUNEAU, TUSCALOOSA, TARAHA, FRESNO, HASSAYAMPA, ST. LOUIS, and DUBUQUE.

WHITE PLAINS returned to Subic Bay on the third, only to depart on the fifth for a two day transit to Hong Kong. The port visit in the British colony lasted five days. WHITE PLAINS departed on 12 Nov for a return trip to Subic Bay. Arriving back in the Philippines on 14 Nov, WHITE PLAINS stayed inport until 22 Nov. Upon departing, the ship celebrated it's 18th birthday. On 26 Nov, WHITE PLAINS arrived at its homeport of Guam.

Having planned on remaining inport through the holidays, WHITE PLAINS unexpectedly had to pull out on two occasions to avoid typhoon Kim. WHITE PLAINS first pulled out on 30 Nov, returning on 2 Dec. At this time, the INSURV team arrived and boarded the ship. However, as the strength of typhoon Kim increased, it became necessary for WHITE PLAINS to depart again. Having left on 3 Dec, WHITE PLAINS returned the next day.

WHITE PLAINS remained inport the rest of December. The month was highlighted with a visit to the ship on 12 December by the Commander Naval Surface Force Pacific, VADM Davis.
